Versus

THE STATE OF BIHAR

4/ 23.9.2008 Since both the above applications arise out of one and the same police case, they have been heard together and are being disposed of by this common order.

The allegation is of demand of ransom by the petitioners and other two accused who had gone to the house of the informant.

Submission is that the petitioners were caught, thrashed and handed over to the police. The petitioners denied that any demand of ransom was made by either of them. Further submission is that nothing was paid, so section 387 of the Indian Penal Code is not attracted. The petitioners are young and they have their bright future.
